2025.January.21st SR Packaging Company News

The leading sustainability intelligence platform for global supply chains, EcoVadis, has awarded SR Packaging Inc. (Group) a gold medal in recognition of its sustainability achievement.

Since its establishment, SR Packaging's manufacturing facilities work to incorporate sustainability practices into every component they produce; continuously striving to improve.

Today, by receiving a Gold Medal awarded by EcoVadis, SR Packaging confirms its position among the top 5% of companies in their sector.

The award evaluates the companies' sustainability rating across four key pillars: Environment, Labor & Human Rights, Ethics, and Sustainable Procurement.

Katie Harris, the VP of Sales of SR Packaging North America Inc. says "This Gold Medal affirms SR Packaging's commitment to sustainability and our ongoing efforts to make a positive impact throughout our supply chain."

Started in 2003, SR Packaging Inc. (Group) manufactures EBM airless bottles, jars, tubes, sprayers, and pumps using post-consumer recycled plastics and plant-based bioplastics to help skincare, personal care, beauty, and cosmetic companies build measurable success in line with consumer demands and sustainable lifestyles.
